Activities, Announcements, Sabbaths & Holy Days

- ✓ Coffee & Fellowship – June 5th. Please bring finger foods/healthy snacks and/or a beverage. Plan to stay after with extra time for fellowship (Atlanta & Buford combined).
- ✓ Atlanta/Buford Combined Sabbath Service & Potluck Meal – Our next combined Sabbath service will be on Pentecost, May 16th. After services we'll have a covered dish dinner. We'll also combine on June 5th, 12th (no meal) and June 26th with a covered dish meal. Each at the Unity Building.
- ✓ IMPORTANT – When we meet in the Sanctuary at the Unity Building – There are no foods or beverages allowed (except bottled water). Also, children must be supervised. No one is permitted near the Sound Booth (rear of the room) or the Music section (or piano) near the stage!
- ✓ Feast Registration – Register ASAP if you have not. The sites are filling up quickly and this info helps with important planning at each site. If your plans change, you can update your selected Feast site. Go to - ucg.org/members/feast/sites/2021 to register or update.
- ✓ Celebrating the Feast at Home – If you cannot attend the Feast in person, please register at “Celebrating the Feast at Home”. You'll get sent to you extra information, articles, music, etc. Go here to register - ucg.org/members/feast/sites/2021/celebrating-the-feast-at-homeonline. See Bob McCurdy or Steve Holladay if you need help.
- ✓ Feast 2T Assistance – If you have faithfully saved 2nd Tithe during the year, but will not have enough to go, the church may be able to help. See your Feast Advisor as soon as possible (the deadline to apply is June 15th).
- ✓ United Youth Camps – Camp season will soon begin. Your prayers for their success are appreciated. Some upcoming and nearby camps are:
 - Camp Nacome – May 30th – June 3rd (Volunteers are needed)
 - Camp Woodland – (Closest to Atlanta) July 23rd – 30th
